Class II Cultural Bonanza – Timeless Treasures: Our Values 2022

“Core values help people to distinguish between good and evil or right and wrong. They also serve as guiding principles for individuals in their journey to achieve their goals and targets to create successful life stories.”

Ellen Degereres has rightly said, “I stand for honesty, equality, kindness, compassion, treating people the way you want to be treated, and helping those in need. To me those are traditional values.” With this thought, the young Cecilians of Class II presented the extravagant larger than life “Cultural Bonanza – Timeless Treasures: Our values 2022” on 8th December 2022 to uphold the school motto “Education for Knowledge, Wisdom, Character and Courage.” The occasion was graced by the august presence of Madam Manager Mrs R Bhumra, Madam Principal, Pre Primary Wing Headmistress, Academic Supervisor (Class I and II) and Coordinators of the Primary, Middle and Senior wing.

The esteemed guests were warmly welcomed and further presentation of saplings were made to Madam Manager, Madam Principal and Pre Primary Head Mistress by the Head Girl, Vice Head Girl, Junior Head Boy and Junior Head Girl to unfurl the fiesta.

Cultural awareness and participation plays an integral role in a student's life and to give each and every student of Class II an opportunity to involve in culturally enriching performance. The "Cultural Bonanza" was organized revolving around a well synchronized street play highlighting the relevance and importance of human virtues with a predominant objective of nurturing their special talents, through dance, music, yoga, aerobics and active creative participation.

The gracious day began by invoking God's blessings and welcoming the parents with a melodious song sung by nightingales of Class II. The tune set a path of clarity towards the theme of the cultural presentation – the importance of virtues, noble living and values. The Head Girl Devanshi Singh and Vice Head Girl Rashmeet Kaur presented the Annual Report 2022-23 to apprise the parents with a glimpse of the worthy accomplishments of Cecilian prodigies.

Madam Manager in her address showered her blessings on the gathering and also appreciated the hard work put up by all for the gala presentation. Madam Principal in her address applauded the noble efforts and the wonderful collaborative efforts of staff, students and parents in bringing together the glory of the day.

The budding artists enthralled the audience with their confident cultural performances and enactments to showcase that the good values such as love, kindness, respect, patience, honesty etc are crucial to shed negativity and move towards a happier and healthier Earth with human brotherhood, peace and understanding.

Various thematic dances intertwined with the meaningful dialogues of street play exhibited the importance of Patience, Honesty,, Respect, Kindness, Generosity, Brotherhood – It's a Small World, Healthy Living – Yoga for life, Aerobics , Save the planet and the Grand Finale telling about togetherness and oneness, indeed touched the hearts of all. The highlight of the day was the well coordinated Cultural Bonanza which was made successful by the students of Classes IX to XII.

The little Cecilians looked adorable dressed up in bright and vibrant costumes. The multiple performances depicting various values of kindness, honesty, patience and responsibility exalted the enthusiastic audience of parents mesmerizing all with the harnessed skills of the tiny tots.

The day saw a grand closing as Primary Wing Coordinator expressed her sincere gratitude to all. The event was highly applauded by one and all. The platform provided a vast canvas to the children to experience myriad of experiences through participation in various activities.
