Makar Sankranti, Lohri, Pongal, Bihu etc. are harvest festivals celebrated all over India across all sections of people. The names vary but the significance is the same everywhere.

To commemorate the auspicious occasion of Lohri, Makar Sankranti, Pongal and Bihu, a virtual celebration was conducted with fervor and gaiety . The celebration began with a short prayer. The students displayed an array of performances such as song, dance, poetry, vibrant and colourful power point presentations, express yourself-wherein the students spoke about the importance of the festival, sketches of Lohri and Pongal celebration etc. Short videos related to the festival were screened. Some of them were attired in traditional outfits.

The students participated with great zeal and enthusiasm. It was enjoyed by students and teachers alike. Madam Principal appreciated the teacher’s efforts and students participation and enthusiasm.
