

St. Cecilia's Public School Makar Sankranti Special Assembly

Makar Sankranti is one of the major festivals of the Hindus. It is celebrated on 14th January every year. It is dedicated to Lord Sun and marks the sun's transit into Makara raashi (Zodiac sign). It marks the beginning of the harvest season. Students of Class VI-A had prepared a Special Assembly on this auspicious occasion. The name of the Almighty was taken foremost, after which the other events followed. Two students gave a speech on the festival, spreading knowledge about what it is and why and how it is celebrated. A play was also prepared by the little champs, where in they explained very well the significance of the festival. Small enactments were done by the students. They showcased their talent and abilities. A dance performance was also given by a girl student. It was mesmerizing. The song chosen was also appropriate, relating to South India. The students had worked hard to prepare their class assembly. It came to an end with the National Anthem. The students had performed very well, and the assembly depicted their hardwork and capabilities. Under the able guidance and efforts of the teacher, the students were able to make the assembly a successful event. Coordinator mam's direction and assistance cannot be forgotten, and she played a major role in its success. Madam Principal appreciated the efforts of the teachers and students
