

St.Cecilia's Public School
Editorial Club
Mono-acting Competition
Senior Wing (Classes IX-XII)

The Editorial Club of St. Cecilia's Public School conducted a Mono-acting competition for classes IX to XII on 11.08.2023. Students were given the following broad topics to prepare their performances - Current Political Issues, General problems faced in our country related to education, health, career, peer pressure, etc and Life Lessons. The competition was kept bi-lingual.

Many students came forward in excitement. The most commonly picked up topics were political issues and mental health. Students used light-weight props during their performances. Ranging from facial expressions to the script of the performances, everything was prepared incredibly. It was a spectacle of youth awareness on the burning topics of the current times that will help bring a change in future.

The performances were highly acclaimed by the audience with the loud sound of the claps. It ended with the announcement of the result.