

St. Cecilia's Public School
CLASS ASSEMBLY
CLASS: II D
RAKSHABANDHAN

The celebration of brother-sister bond needs no special day. Every day, every moment they spend together is a symbol of their strong bond and undying love for each other. Still, what better than the day of Rakshabandhan to express their feelings. Rakshabandhan is a day devoted to brothers and sisters.

The same was depicted through a class assembly by II-D on Monday, 28-8-23. The assembly started with prayer and showcased the importance of the festival. The students spoke few lines on how the festival is celebrated all over India and also showed placards on Rakshabandhan. They enlightened the students with the history of the festival. Various anecdotes were depicted wherein the students dressed up as Lord Krishna, Draupadi, King Bali, Goddess Lakshmi, Shubh, Labh and Goddess Santoshi.

The main highlight of the assembly was the dance performance by the kids where the sisters tied rakhis to their brothers, gifts were exchanged and was it filled the hearts with joy and happiness.

A hindi poem was recited which spoke about the ways to cherish the irreplaceable bond between the brothers and sisters. It also highlighted the beauty of the festival.

The assembly ended on a happy note with kids excited to celebrate the festival with their loved ones.
