'Vanmahotsav' is an annual one-week tree-planting festival in India which is celebrated in the first week of July. The festival was celebrated to create awareness among all to save our planet as well as our precious resources for our future generations.

Students of class VIII-A had organized a special assembly to mark this significant day. The celebration began with the name of the Almighty, after which the other events were scheduled. The pledge was taken after the prayer. This was followed by the news reading session and thought for the day.

The students also presented a speech that highlighted the importance of practicing afforestation to safeguard our planet. Their beautiful banners with slogans were like cherry on the cake. The poetry recitation highlighting the immediate need to save our resources for our future generations created a rhythmic atmosphere. Last but not the least, was a dance performance by a group of students, whose energy and mesmerizing costumes won the hearts of all, giving the message of practicing afforestation.
