Workshop on Communication Skills and Public Speaking

Class X

On 11th May 2023, renowned coach and founder of GWEPP, Mr. Gagandeep Singh interacted with class X students during a power packed session on Communication Skills and Public Speaking. The speaker conducted series of participative activities that illustrated methods to instill self belief, self esteem and self discipline. Extensive action learning oriented exercise were carried out to ingrain super refined communication skills. In the lively student centric session, guest speaker also trained the students in insights to re-orient themselves to be a charismatic orator.

Madam Principal appreciated the enriching session and motivated the students to put in optimum input to gain awesome results. Madam also added that students must remain super motivated to pursue their academic dreams of career.

The students were thankful to the school and the speaker for instilling in them the belief that as winners they have the perseverance to ascend to great Attitude. The session closed with the statement – “Everyone listens with full respect, that’s the magic of your impact” to be practiced by learned Cecilians.
