GANDHI JAYANTI
29.09.2023

“Happiness is when what you think, what you say and what you do are in harmony”

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi or Mahatma Gandhi and more lovingly known as Bapu by all the Indians is internationally acknowledged for his doctrine of non-violence. 2nd October is observed as International Day of Non – Violence everywhere.

To commemorate this day a special Assembly was conducted by Class – III. It began with Gandhiji's favourite bhajan – Raghupati Raghav Raja Ram. A poem dedicated to non violence was recited by the students.

Students explained the teachings of Gandhi ji with the help of placards. They also introduced the three monkeys of Gandhiji explaining their significance.

The assembly concluded with a tribute to our Late Prime Minister Sh. Lal Bahadur Shastri who shares his birthday with Gandhiji wherein a student spoke lines on him.
