Gurpurab and Childrens Day Celebration 2022
Class – Nur-Prep

‘Guru Nanak Jayanti’ is one of the most auspicious occasion, which marks the birth anniversary of the first of the ten Sikh Gurus, Guru Nanak DevJi. He was the founder of the religion of Sikhism and his birth is celebrated worldwide, as a mark of divinity,. He is considered to have brought ‘enlightenment’ to the world.

Guru Nanak DevJi had formalized the three pillars of Sikhism, also called three duties. ‘Naam Jap that focused on reciting and chanting God’s name daily in remembrance. ‘Kirat Karo’ that teaches whole mankind to do hard work and earn with honesty. Also, ‘Vand Chakko’ that stands for sharing with everyone, irrespective of human differences of caste or creed.

Birth anniversary of Shri Guru Nanak DevJi was celebrated with great exuberance at St. cecilia’s public School. A special assembly was conducted to mark the occasion. Students came dressed in traditional Sikh attire(PanjPyare) and the assembly was commenced with a prayer followed by a ‘procession with PanjPyare’. A calm and soothing atmosphere was created by the ‘Shabads’ and ‘Hymns’. The assembly ended as the kids offered prayers and seeked blessings from the divine Guru.

A devotional movie on , Guru Nanak DevJi’s birth history was also shown to the children, paying reverence to him and making the students acquainted with his profound preaching and dedicated work towards mankind.

Lastly, ‘Guru Langer’ was organized for everyone. All the children sat with covered heads and had the Langer together. This way the students learned a very pertinent value of togetherness, being grateful and sharing joys with our loved ones. The day was filled with positivity and goodness.

Children's Day Celebration

Children's Day was celebrated with great fervor in the school premises to mark the birth anniversary of Pt. JawaharLal Nehru, the first Prime minister of India.

Students were engaged in many meaningful activities throughout the day. They were involved in making beautiful art and craft pieces, honing their creative skills and learning virtues of oneness and unity, parallelly.

An inspirational movie on the life trajectory of Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru was shown to the students, highlighting his significant contributions for the upliftment of children and his adoration toward them, who fondly called him 'Chacha Nehru'. He strongly believed that children are the foundation of a society and they should be provided with a nurturing environment.

Lastly, sweets were distributed among all students to extend love and warmth towards them and keep the spirit of the day intact. The day was the memorable one for the budding minds.
